COCHIN, the 17th August 1914.

No. 866-A.—The following notification of the Government of India is republished for general information:—

HOME DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

Sixth, the 12th August 1914.

No. 1424.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 27 of the Indian Arms Act, 1878 (Xl of 1878), the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct that the exemptions made by entry No. 18 of Schedule I of the Indian Arms Rules, 1909, in favour of Europeans who are not natural born or naturalized subjects of His Majesty shall not extend to any subjects of the German or Austrian Empire.

H. WINKLER,
Secretary to the Government of India.

(Republished by order of the Governor in Council.)

A. BUTTERWORTH,
Ap. Chief Secretary.

"With a view, however, to obviate inconvenience to the public, His Britannic Majesty's Government will, until further notice, and as an act of grace, permit the transmission of such telegrams and radio-telegrams in plain language as Foreign Governments or the public choose to send, except telegrams and radio-telegrams on the service of the German and Austrian Governments, or to, or from, Germany or Austria-Hungary and their Colonies or Possessions, provided that such telegrams and radio-telegrams are written in English or French, and on the understanding that they are accepted at the sender's risk and subject to censorship by the British authorities; that is, that they may be stopped, delayed, or otherwise dealt with, in all respects, at the discretion of those authorities and without notice to the senders; and that no claims in respect of them, whether for the reimbursement of the sums paid for transmission or otherwise, will be considered by His Majesty's Government in any circumstances whatever. It is, moreover, essential that such telegrams and radio-telegrams should bear the sender's name at the end of the text, otherwise they are liable to be stopped until the name is notified by paid telegram. Registered abbreviated addresses will not be accepted either as addresses or as the names of senders."

Note.—The term "telegram" is applied to radio-telegram messages sent from shore to shore, as well as to those sent by cable or land line.

The term "radio-telegram" is used to denote messages exchanged between ships and the shore.

E. E. KETHOVEN,
Secretary to the Government of India.

HOME DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Sinh, the 28th August 1914.

No. 577.—Whereas the Governor-General in Council considers it necessary to take further precautions in respect of foreigners residing in or travelling in British India.

Now therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 of the Foreigners Act, 1864 (III of 1864), the Governor-General in Council is pleased to order that the provisions of section 5 and of all the subsequent sections of the said Act shall, for a period of six months from the date of this notification, be in force in British India, including British Baluchistan, the Scindia Pargana and the District of Anjal.

No. 578.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 25 of the Foreigners Act, 1864 (III of 1864), the Governor-General in Council is pleased to exempt—

- (a) from the provisions of section 5 and all the subsequent sections of the said Act, all foreigners being Austrians, and
- (b) from the provisions of sections 10 to 19 of the said Act, all non-Austrian foreigners not being of German or Austrian nationality.

H. WHEELER,
Secretary to the Government of India.
